Make it catchy to grab the reader's attention

Write a short summary of the story. Write in bold if typing or bigger if handwriting.

Write a short summary of the story. Write in bold if typing or bigger if handwriting.

Set out the details of the story. What happened, who was involved, where did it happen?

Add some quotes from the lead detective, an eye witness or an expert.

Add a conclusion to summarise the story.

Aximollatur? Sed mod quidellacea consed ea sit officii ut labo. Nemque resti bearch- il idererrore pa ea simet odis arumque de coreperunt pa cusam ea doloribeati dolor.

Add a picture and give it a caption so the reader knows what it is about.
